

READING ABBEY
The Cloisters.

Odette
M

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

"READING." [Regd.] Postcard 7527.

By Appointment.

Reading Abbey, of which little now remains but a series of carefully preserved ruins, was founded by Henry I. in 1121, on the site of a former abbey—the foundation of Elfrida, about 986, to atone for the murder of Edward the Martyr. The monks were of the Benedictine order. Henry VIII. dissolved the Abbey in 1540, executing the Abbot and two monks.

Printed in England.

LL6908

TUCK'S POST CARD 4p

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CTPA/2.9